Town Board Business

1. Supervisor Bellows read a resolution declaring Monday March 25 Ed Portz Day and was presented with a plaque.
2. Kevin Cahill would like the town to support the Levon Helm Blvd resolution.
3. CAC Chairman Joan Paccione talked about the Open Space Plan. She would like the Town to review a proposed open space plan in sections to provide direction for preservation efforts that would keep development from intruding the town’s character.
4. Supervisor Bellows read a resolution in support of NYS Program Bill No. 26 authorizing Casino Gambling within the state as regulated by the State.
WHEREAS on January 14, 2012 Program Bill # 26 was introduce in the NYS Legislature proposing amendment the Wawarsing Town Board has adopted a resolution on March 1, 2012 stating a desire to locate a casino at the Nevele Grand Hotel property in the Town of Wawarsing and
WHEREAS the County of Ulster and its 20 Towns would benefit from the taxes, fees, and tourist dollars which would be spent throughout Ulster County,

THEREFORE be it resolved that the Hurley Town Boars supports gaming and casino gambling in Ulster County provided that any such facility would be located in the Town of Wawarsing preferably at the Nevele Grand Hotel Property.

After a discussion the Town Board decided to table the resolution until a presentation is made by one of the developers.

5. Supervisor Bellows had a recent meeting with US Rep Chris Gibson. He has given the congressman a complete view of all the issues of the reservoir releases into the Lower Esopus as far as the Town of Hurley is concerned. Supervisor Bellows is happy a higher elected official is taking an interest in the turbidity, flooding and debris and how it affects the residents downstream from the Ashokan.
6. Superintendent Russell received one bid for repairs along the Rail Trail but was still waiting for prices from two other companies.
7. We will be putting together RFP's for the solar panels.
8. Hazardous Waste Day will be April 20 at UCRRA from 8 to 2.
9. The Town Board will be asking for estimates from five specialists to conduct an inventory of historic structures.
10. Sales tax for the last quarter was $35,325.04 down from last year which was $40,956.89.
11. The Board members, highway, dog control officer, town clerk and the town attorney, code enforcement officer attended training for National Incident Management System given by the Sheriff's office. This will help us be in compliance for FEMA reimbursements.
